

Barry Welsh

Barry is a Freelance artist, performer, choreographer and teacher in aerial circus skills, acting, movement, physical theatre and devising new works. He gained a BA in Acting Studies (Arden School of Theatre) and a PTTLs, Qualified Circus Teacher Training, (Circommedia, Bristol).

Barry's involvement at the Black -E includes teaching Circus and producing performances with young people. He has previously worked throughout the northwest and in Bristol, with local authorities, schools, colleges, theatres and drug re-habilitation groups. He is Artistic Director of Black & Blue theatre company, a multi-disciplinary company that combines live music, theatre and storytelling to make new works. The company have produced and performed New Circus theatre in Scotland and North West UK since 2001.

Source URL: <https://www.theblack-e.co.uk/content/museum/barry-welsh>