

Oliver Twist & Portas

An afternoon of Two Halves at The Black-E

The Black-E in Great George Street Liverpool run free circus classes for young people from disadvantaged groups and young people with neurodevelopment conditions. We are keen to promote what we do across Merseyside to enable more children and young people to access the free projects that we provide.

In addition to this we are keen to promote our high quality circus performances across the city to groups that do not access the theatre

I would like to inform you about the Black-E end of year performances that is taking place this

Saturday 19th December:
